

Raj Narayan and Radhika presented a paper at the International Conference on 'Indian Music in the perspective of Globalization', held by the Delhi University in March, under the auspices of UGC. A galaxy of luminaries of the music world participated in the event, excellently organized by the Music Department headed by Prof Anjali Mittal, ably assisted by Prof Suneera Kasliwal. The photo shows Mr Raj Narayan demonstrating the Swaroopini Digital swarmandal, while Radhika accompanies him on the Taalmala digi-100. This was followed by a demonstration of the Radel digital veena, the patented Indian music synthesizer.

Further details of the conference can be seen on this link: <http://www.omenad.net>